School Admissions/Eligibility for Services

Special education services shall be available to identified children with disabilities between the ages of three (3) through twenty-one (21) years who are enrolled in the Member Districts.

The student who has successfully completed a secondary program shall be granted a diploma by the student's resident school district and all eligibility for public school education is terminated. The acceptance of a high school diploma terminates a student's eligibility for special education services. A student's graduation is an issue for the student's IEP team.
